

ASSEMBLY BILL

No. 282

Introduced by Assembly Member Eggman

February 11, 2015

An act to amend Section 19006 of the Business and Professions Code, relating to business.

LEGISLATIVE COUNSEL'S DIGEST

AB 282, as introduced, Eggman. Home furnishings.

Existing law, the Home Furnishings and Thermal Insulation Act, provides for the licensure and regulation of, among others, upholstered-furniture manufacturers by the Bureau of Electronic and Appliance Repair, Home Furnishings, and Thermal Insulation. Existing law defines “upholstered furniture” for purpose of the act.

This bill would make nonsubstantive changes to that definition.

Vote: majority. Appropriation: no. Fiscal committee: no.
State-mandated local program: no.

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

- 1 SECTION 1. Section 19006 of the Business and Professions
- 2 Code is amended to read:
- 3 19006. “Upholstered furniture” ~~means~~ shall mean any furniture,
- 4 including children’s furniture, movable or stationary, which is
- 5 made or sold with cushions or pillows, loose or attached, or is itself
- 6 stuffed or filled in whole or in part with any material, is or can be
- 7 stuffed or filled in whole or in part with any substance or material,
- 8 hidden or concealed by fabric or any other covering, including
- 9 cushions or pillows belonging to or forming a part thereof, together

1 with the structural units, the filling material and its container and
2 its covering which can be used as a support for the body of a human
3 being, or his or her limbs and feet when sitting or resting in an
4 upright or reclining position. This “Upholstered Furniture” does
5 not include furniture used exclusively for the purpose of physical
6 fitness and exercise.
